Dear Marine Neas (Eddie) and Fellow Leaguers,

The report of Slattery Det's 15 Nov visit to Walter Reed reached me via an old high school buddy named Ray Magno. Reading about your dedicated service made me extremely proud of being a member of the Marine Corps League and also of my New Jersey roots.

I was raised in Caldwell and graduated from Grover Cleveland High in 1951 (didn't make valedictorian but was dubbed "Class Clown").

Please let me know where and when your detachment holds it's meetings. If I get a chance to visit the "Old Country" to see my sister and her family, it would be a pleasure to stop by to say hello and "Ooh-Rah". Speaking of my sister, the next time you see Father Mike, please tell him that Marjorie Duffy's kid brother from Arizona said "Hi"

Keep up the fantastic job of making our wounded vets happy and League looking GREAT!!

Semper Fi.

Eddie
